Tdh and its partners implement non-formal education activities in:

- Urban area of Ioannina
- Doliana
- Filippiada
- Konitsa
- Agia Eleni

Our non-formal education activities in the region of Epirus aim at ensuring children and adults have access to a quality learning program with a focus on both cognitive and affective development, in view of assisting them to return to official education

In July 2017:

78

130

Children and adults attended Greek language sessions offered by the University of Ioannina

44

Adults benefited from life skills and non-formal education

11

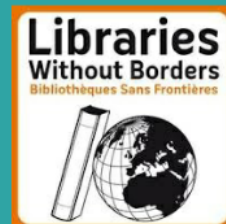

Tdh staff trained in classroom management and the use of innovative educational equipment

Implementing partners

University of Ioannina

The University of Ioannina, with its in depth knowledge of the Greek educational system and teaching methods of languages, which are crucial skills for meaningful non-formal education in current context of Greece, has dedicated professionals who developed, tested and piloted appropriate non-formal learning methods in the sites where this action takes place

Libraries without Borders

Libraries Without Borders provides holistic and cost-effective alternative to establishing community libraries that is flexible enough to adapt to local circumstances and provide access to educational and cultural materials in multiple languages of the target population
